

Frankfort Twp. Schoolmen To Study Area Problems

Board members and administrators of the four grade school districts of Frankfort Township are to meet next Tuesday night, Nov. 26, in the Arbury Hills School to discuss a proposed two-fold program --

A move toward greater cooperation among the districts, and

A move to consolidate the districts into one large district that would embrace the entire township.

The move toward greater cooperation, according to a spokesman, would establish a common school calendar for one thing. As it stands now the schools calendars vary enough to cause some confusion.

There also will be discussion of the possibility of employing a business manager who would look after the affairs of the four districts. It also was pointed out that perhaps the districts would like to have supplemental special teachers of their own.

The four school districts in Frankfort Township, plus the New Lenox district and the Manhattan district have been working together for years as an association of underlying districts of the Lincoln-Way High School district. A spokesman for the Frankfort Township group said that they would continue to operate as a part of the Lincoln-Way area educational system but added that the fact they are separated by distance from Manhattan and the growth of the New Lenox district will make changes in its needs, makes it necessary for the Frankfort districts to operate more closely together.

The Frankfort districts, besides Arbury Hills School (which is in Dist. 161 which is known as Summit Hill district) are Ann Rutledge (Dist. 56-C) in Lincoln Estates; Frankfort Dist. 157-C, and Mokena District 159.

All of the districts are faced with the fact that the assessed valuation does not keep up with the population growth in the schools.

Some believe that a consolidation of the four districts into one township school district would provide more money. It would give a broader tax base, it was pointed out, and any increase in the assessed valuation, regardless of where it occurred in the township would help all the schools.

As far as is known there has been no survey made or poll taken among the school people, administrators and board members, as to their feelings on the subject of a consolidated district. But, it was pointed out, the ultimate decision would be made by the voters of the township as such a proposal would have to be submitted in a referendum.

The school law, it was explained, permits establishment of township districts. As a matter of fact the state encourages large school districts. Some educators would like to see county wide districts or a bank of counties made into a school district.

There is also opposition to too large districts on the grounds that localities might lose their voice in school affairs, especially if the district contained a large urban center. In such a township as Frankfort, it was pointed out, the population is spread fairly equally and likely to continue that way.

Seek Arsonist

Hunt for a man seen fleeing from the site of a fire on Francis Rd., is still being carried on by Will County sheriff's deputies.

The fire, which Fire Chief Ed Falck describes as arson, destroyed a two-story dwelling owned by Robert Johnson on the south side of Francis Rd., just west of the overpass over I-80. The Johnson's now reside in Arizona and the house was unoccupied. It had been rented for a time but for some months now it had been for sale.

A passing motorists saw the house burst into flames a little after 9 o'clock Wednesday night, Nov. 13. At the same time a car, without lights, pulled out of the driveway alongside the house and headed east on Francis. As he crossed the overpass the driver turned on his lights and sped on, reaching a speed of 80 m.p.h. in a 40 mile zone, according to the motorist who followed. On Cedar Rd. the man stopped and asked the other motorist why he was following him. The motorist pointed out that the man was traveling pretty fast.

That was no business of his, the speeder retorted and drove off again.

The motorist jotted down the license number of the car but investigators have not been able to place such a car in his area.

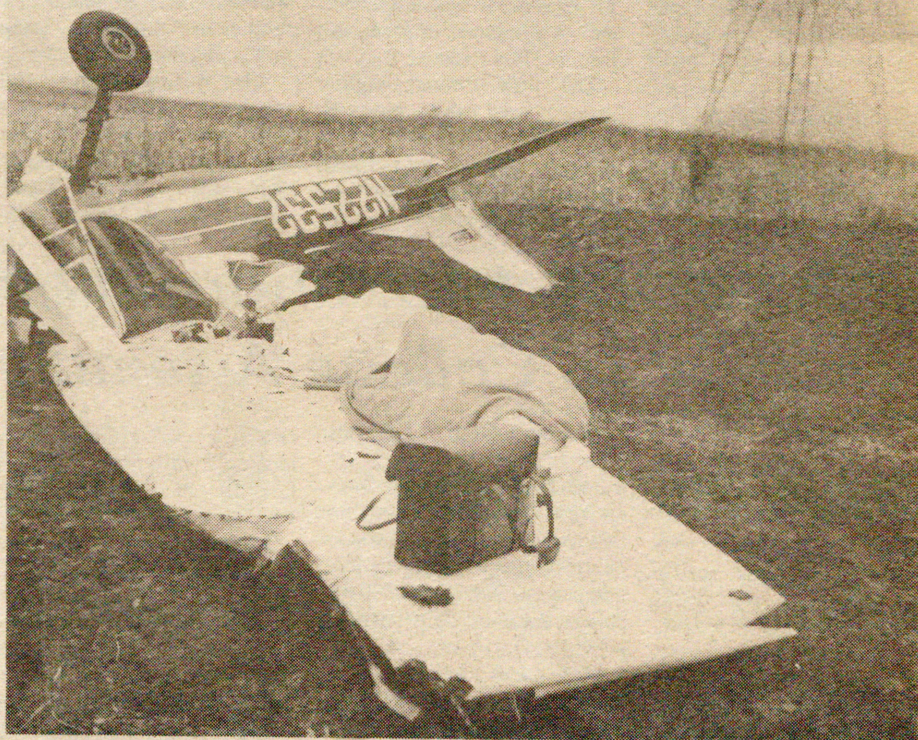

New Lenox firemen battled the fire for two hours before extinguishing it. It blazed up again the following day and also again last weekend. Chief Falck estimates the loss at $8,000 to $10,000.

The structure was far enough away from neighboring homes not to endanger them.

HUNT ARSONIST in connection with the fire apparently touched off in this house on Francis Rd., just west of the overpass spanning I-80. The fire broke out shortly after 9 o'clock Wednesday night (Nov. 13). Some hidden embers were fanned to life by the night wind and New Lenox firemen had to make a second trip Thursday morning to kill all traces of fire.

REMAINS OF plane crash in plowed field, three-quarters of a mile west of the Frankfort Airport, that took place last weekend, probably Friday night shortly after 6:30 o'clock. The two occupants of the planes, blanketed here, were killed. The wreck was not discovered until about 7 a.m. Saturday. The plane crashed when a wheel and wing tip caught the top wire in a high voltage line about a block to the west. (Graphic Newspapers photo)

Plane Crash Takes 2 Lives At Frankfort

A flying student and his instructor were killed sometime last Friday night or in the early hours of Saturday, when the plane in which they were riding hit one of the high voltage wires west of Frankfort Airport and crashed wheels up in a plowed field about a block east of the high line.

A farmer passing along Center Rd. about 7 o'clock Saturday morning spotted the wreck in the field, about three - quarters of a mile west of the road.

Deputies from the Will County sheriff's office were called as were federal and state aviation agencies.

Found in the pilot's seat was the student, Joseph E. Krimmel, 20, of 728 W. 48th Place. Lying out on the wing was the instructor and operator of a flying school at Midway Airport, Robert F. Dohnal, of Brookfield.

A piece of wing tip was hanging from the top wire of the high voltage line that marches thru the countryside there, and below it, on the ground, was one of the wheels of the small craft, a 150 Cessna, single engine plane.

The field was so deep in mud that the officials present tried to get a tractor and wagon to bring the bodies out but finally, about 10:30 o'clock, they carried them out, going a quarter mile before finding solid footing.

The bodies were placed in a Frankfort Community Chapel ambulance and taken to Silver Cross Hospital at Joliet, for autopsies.

The plane was fueled at the Frankfort Airport about 6 o'clock Friday night, investigators were told. One theory is that Krimmel wanted to try some night landings and that the crash may have occurred shortly after the plane had taken off after refueling.

There was no fire before or after the plane hit the ground so the crash could easily have escaped notice, it was said. The wire was not broken when the wheel and wing tip were torn off.

Let Contracts For I-80 Work

Contracts for the access and exit ramps connecting U.S. 45 and I-80, about two miles east of Mokena, and the extension of U.S. 45 over the Rock Island Lines tracks to a point a little south of 191st St. have been let to five companies.

Start of work, it was said, will depend upon weather conditions.

The total bid, which was opened at Springfield last Friday, comes to $1,938,188.28, and covers 1.72 miles of 16-foot reinforced concrete ramps and 1.71 miles of 24-foot reinforced concrete roadway.

Four of the bidders are from the area--Brown & Lambrecht, Gougar Rd., New Lenox; E.H. Swenson, Trygg Paving Co., and Delta Construction Corp., all of Joliet, and Eric Bollander Construction Co., of Libertyville.

Completion of these ramps and the overhead crossing of the railroad is expected to contribute to development of the area. The Orland Park Village Board has been urging action on the ramp and highway completion for some time and Mokena and Frankfort officials have been interested in getting the job done.

Until the ramps are built at U. S. 45, Mokena and Frankfort residents have to go to Tinley Park or West of New Lenox to gain access to I-80.

It probably will be two or three weeks before the contracts are formally signed and in effect, it was explained.

Arbury Hills Summit Hill PTA Seeks More Block Parents

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
Telephone 479-5740

According to the discussions at the last meeting of the Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Group on Nov. 4, there is still a need for additional Block Parents.

This program was initiated following a talk by one of the public relations staff of Beverly Bank at a previous meeting. The Block Parents Program has been started in various areas thruout Chicago with success.

Block Parents are those people who would be willing to display a sign in their front window to the effect that they would be willing to help out any child on the walk either to or from school should any emergency arise thru illness or injury or any trouble from other children or adults.

This does not require much of anyone's time, and would be a worthwhile endeavor for someone who is normally at home during school hours. If you could participate in this program, please contact Mrs. June Juric at 479-5647.

The attendance award presented at each business meeting of the Parent-Teacher Group was given this month to the fifth grade class room of Mr. R. Remko. His class had the largest percentage of parents attending the business meeting.

The monthly Hot Dog Day sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Group will be held on Nov. 26.

This year the school tried something different in the way of distributing the first report cards. The parents were requested to come at specified times to meet each child's teachers and receive the grades from them.

In the lower grades, kindergarten thru fourth grade this entailed only one teacher and was done in the individual class room.

The fifth through eighth grades and the physical education classes were grouped in the all-purpose room to use the time to best advantage. The parents were encouraged to visit all their children's teachers, altho they were required to see only the home room teacher. It was encouraging to see that many fathers were able to come along with the mothers, and all in all there were only about 4% of the parents who were not able to send either mother or father to school on the appointed day.

Also during National Educational Week the Book Fair was visited by each of the class rooms in turn, so that the children could decide on the books they wanted.

There was a meeting of the teachers of the kindergarten through fifth grades at the Frankfort School two weeks ago which enabled the teachers to discuss the curriculum of each school and how best to integrate each program so that the child would have his education flow easily from grammar school through high school.

There was also a faculty meeting to preview the educational films on family living and sex education for the classroom. The parents of the sixth through eighth grades will be invited to see the films, since it is being required by law that some instruction in these fields be given in the schools.

There should be some serious thinking about the problem of additional toilet facilities and additional classroom space in the immediate future. The main difficulty is the low assessed valuation of the area, which hampers the availability of ready money. Some arrangements must be made soon to avert a conflict with the state of Illinois over the lack of toilet facilities due to the large increase of students since the previous construction.

There will be only one meeting of the school board during the month of December due to the Christmas holidays. This meeting will be held at the school on Dec. 16.

Because of the impending start of the basketball season, there were two squads of cheerleaders chosen recently to cheer on the teams to victory. The basketball season will open with a game at the Arbor Park School on Dec. 5 with the first home game taking place on Jan. 16.

Elect Sandburg High To College Assembly

Sandburg High School has been honored by being selected for a three-year term on the College Scholarship Service Assembly, a division of the College Entrance Examination Board (CEEBS), it was announced by Principal G.W. Davidson.

"It's quite an honor," Dr. Davidson explained. "Only a few public high schools have a vote in CEEBS; the organization is made up mainly of universities, colleges, and private prep schools."

Davidson suggested that Sandburg may have been chosen because the school sends graduates to such a wide range of colleges. "At one time we kept a U.S. map with pins in every state representing our graduates attending institutions of higher learning all over the country," he said.

Sandburg was one of 18 Midwestern high schools elected to the College Scholarship Service in a nationwide meeting held in New York Oct. 28-30. Bloom Township High School was the only other Illinois school named.

The scholarship assembly is a powerful group which helps determine policies for financial aid and scholarships in U.S. colleges. Davidson will have a vote at the national meeting in New York each year and at the Midwestern regional meeting in Chicago.

MOKENA METHODIST women are getting ready for their annual Christmas bazaar that will be held in the educational building Dec. 2 and 3. Bazaar items will be on sale from 7 to 9 p.m. Dec. 2, and there will be a luncheon Dec. 3, with serving from 11:30 to 1:30 o'clock. The public is invited to luncheon as well as bazaar. The women here, with a few of the items that are being readied for the bazaar, are heads of church groups. Water, Above And Below, Concerns Frankfort Board Concern about water was voiced by two members of the Frankfort Village Board at its meeting this week. Trustee Jerry Osmus was concerned about too much on the surface and Trustee John Topp, head of the water committee, is concerned about lack of it in the town's original well.

Trustee Topp said that the No. 1 well is extremely low in water, so low that the pump frequently pumps air. Mayor Glenn Warning wondered if that may be causing appearance of rust and sediment in the water at intervals.

Frankfort has two other wells, it was pointed out, so there is no prospect of a water shortage but with the village growth increasing steadily there will be need of three wells and in time more water will be needed, it was believed.

The No. 1 well is a shallow affair, having a depth of only 150 feet. This type is usually referred to as a surface well, as compared to the type known as deep wells which sometimes reach down several hundred to a thousand feet or more to tap a plentiful supply of water.

Trustee Topp suggests drilling the present well deeper to a greater vein of water. The new well, which was brought in a corner of Community Park, just off of Nebraska St. and near the park's west boundary, cost approximately $15,000, and the pump house and hooking up of mains is expected to run another $10,000, it was stated. How much it will cost to rehabilitate the No. 1 well is not known at this time. It will be necessary to get an opinion from a well driller or an engineer, it was explained.

Trustee Osmus said he believed that a lot of the trouble from surface drainage was the result of erection of structures with mammoth roofs.

"We should look in to this more thoroly, in the future," Osmus urged, "especially in the case of industrial or commercial buildings. These large roofs cover ground that would absorb the water but now the water comes pouring off and is very difficult to control."

There had been a drainage problem at the southeast edge of the village when Mobile Chemical put in its plant, it was recalled, but this water was finally channeled off to the east.

Trustee Lynn Kohlhausen said he didn't think surface water from the east ran to the west and caused any trouble on that side of town. Kohlhausen did not believe the big roofs a major factor.

He agreed that the build-up of a communities caused greater surface water problems but believes the solution is a good storm water sewer system.

Osmus also suggested that the village hire a man as an executive assistant to the mayor who would have all the answers and the time to devote to the variety of problems facing the board. The problems grow as the village grows and since service on the village board is only a parttime job the trustees can only devote a portion of their time to it.

"The situation now," Osmus told the board, "is that we need someone to devote his full time to village business. I would suggest that the finance committee consider this and determine if the money is available to pay such a man."

Trustee Robert Dean, chairman of the finance committee, pointed out that the village was usually able to find the means to meet a necessity. Dean said he agreed that Frankfort should have such an administrator.

"I am sure we can find the money," Dean said, "but I think the first step is to find the man."

Members of the board are attending a dinner at Joliet tonight at which the 25 municipalities of Will County are to be represented. It has been suggested that the Will County communities form a league or association, to better handle affairs that could affect the county as a whole. Dean suggested that perhaps thru conversations there with other officials, including the Joliet city manager, might get them some leads to an administrator. The other members of the board, including the mayor, were in favor of the plan.

There was some discussion about extension of a watermain from Nebraska and U.S. 45 to the S & S Sink Top plant, with the cost to be divided among the benefited property owners and the village on an equitable basis. Mayor Warning said the engineer estimates the cost of running such a main would be approximately $17,000.

Mayor Warning related that he had several complaints from residents that the garbage pick-up crews had not taken up all they had set out. Some of this was building material, it was said, and the garbage pick-up contractor told the village his crews would not pick up building material.

The mayor said that in the cases he was talking about the building material had been broken in pieces and placed in a can.

"I can't see any reason why it shouldn't be picked up when it is placed in a container," the mayor said. He directed Village Clerk Walter Pfaff to call the contractor and find out why the pick-up was not made.

Fall Play Opens At Sandburg Tonight

The story told in "The Diary of Anne Frank," which was widely read in World War II, now converted to drama, is the fall play that will be presented at Carl Sandburg High School tonight, and Friday and Saturday nights.

The story deals with experiences of Anne Frank, a Jewish girl, who was hidden by a Dutch family to save her from the Nazis during the occupation of Holland.

The part of Anne is played by Sue Butera. Anne's parents are portrayed by Drucila Radosevitch and Brendan Greene. Others in the cast include Judy Hucko, a junior, as Margot, Anne's sister. Junior Ed Gabel and Seniors Mary Halbach and Ryan Armbruster are members of the Van Daan family, that concealed Anne. Scott Trent, a junior, plays the part of Mr. Dussel and the roles of Miep and Mrs. Krohles are played by Glynis Benson, a sophomore, and Wally Jones, a senior.

Miss Marianne Zern, a speech teacher, is directing.

While he has no lines a member of the cast listed as important to the production is Harvey, a black cat owned by a junior, Lynn Pomplun. Really, Harvey is an understudy cat, the original character having taken off after a rehearsal one night and is still at large, but Harvey is reported to be getting his claws into the part.

Merchants Host Joker Five Tonight

Orland Park Merchants, the Chamber of Commerce basketball team will be hosts tonight to the Jokers A.C. five in the Sandburg High School gym.

This will be a rematch of the championship game in the 32-team St. Francis Desales tourney last year. When the two teams met then the Merchants won, 123 to 111, in a game that was all tied up with about two and a half minutes to go.

The Jokers have 6'-11" Bill Deebes, 6'-8" Pat Hogan and 6'-6" Ken Johnson, all former college stars. The Jokers have the height on the Merchants have some good ball handlers and should be able to give a good account of themselves.

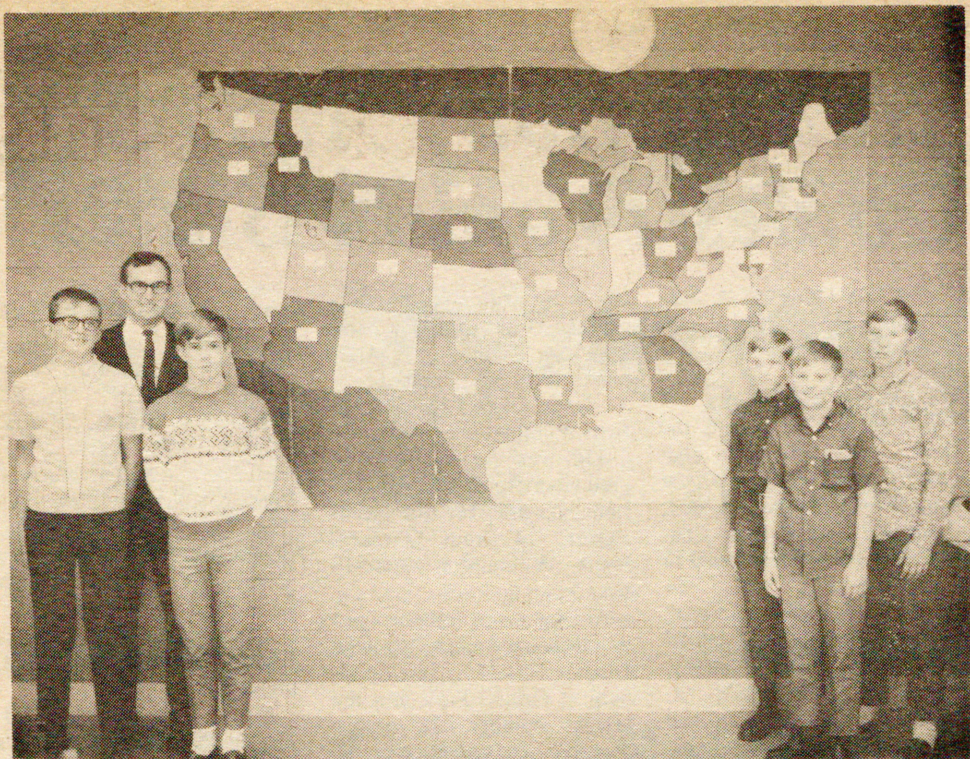

The Orland team lost its first tilt of the year to Mendota but last week it had the best of it in a clash with the Joliet Junior College.

Grades To Be Hand Delivered

Report cards are supposed to be "hand delivered" this year in District 230 as an economy measure.

The cards for the first nine week grading period will be given to students at Sandburg and Stagg High Schools who will be asked to take them home to parents. Grades were on cards last Wednesday and the cards should be ready to send home in about ten days or two weeks.

The first three report cards will be sent home via student but the report card at the end of the year will be mailed to the parents. Savings of postage should amount to 18 cents for each of approximately 3,000 students, or about $540.

Response To Mall Plan Pleases Mokena C of C

A turnout of more than 100 persons at the dinner sponsored last Saturday night by the Mokena Chamber of Commerce at Jardine's in Tinley Park, was interpreted by Chamber officials as representing community support for its proposed establishment of a Mall along Front St.

The Mokena Village Board is taking the necessary legal steps to purchase a portion of the property from the Rock Island Lines and the S.W. Hauck Oil Co., and to lease the remainder from the railroad for a nominal sum. The Chamber of Commerce is contributing $5,000 to be used for the down payment and plans to raise the funds to make the actual improvements.

The land, a 50-foot strip along Front St. from Wolf Rd. to Mokena St. will cost $30,500 and would be purchased on contract. Paving of the parking surface; the building of sidewalks; the planting of trees, shrubs, and flowers; installation of ornamental lighting, and a monument for the American dead of all wars, is expected to cost about $45,000, bringing the total sum involved to about $75,000.

Paul R. Myers, district superintendent of NI-Gas Co., principal speaker at the dinner, described the proposed Mall as "a visual demonstration of the pride the people of Mokena have in their community."

"Changing Times," was his theme and he pointed out there was no standing still, one either moved forward or fell back.

Surveys and studies show that Frankfort Township, which now has a population of some 7,000, will have almost 22,000 in 1985, he said.

Mokena, Myers went on, was ideally located to attract business and people.

Teachers Listen to Broadcaster

Floyd Kalber, Chicago NBC news telecaster, spoke at the quarterly meeting of the Lincoln-Way Area Teachers Association, in the high school auditorium last Monday night.

There was a question and answer period afterwards at which demonstrations, rioting and the like were discussed.

with excellent highway and rail facilities, good schools, and other factors that make it a good community.

"To assure the growth of the community, and to channel that growth to its best advantage, civic minded leaders and citizens must each do his part. It takes a lot of time, it takes a lot of money, and it takes a lot of hard work to build a good community," Myers declared.

A green strip along Front St. will enhance the appearance of the community, Cadet Cottingham, told the diners, and introduced James Clarisch, of the architectural firm of Healy Moore & Associates, who showed drawings of the proposed improvements for the Mall. James Cooper, of the Mokena State Bank, summarized the costs of the project.

Will Tuttle, president of the Chamber, presided. Mrs. Frances Kleinhoffer sang.

Little advance notice was given of the dinner so Chamber officials were pleased with the attendance it drew.

The body was brought from the Hirsch Chapel at Tinley Park at noon to lie in state until the hour of services, at which the Rev. Laslo Hunyady officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Hensel died suddenly Monday night at Silver Cross Hospital, Joliet.

N. Lenox Youth Gets B & L Science Award

William Kokal, of New Lenox, a senior at Lincoln-Way High School, has been presented with the annual Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award. The presentation was made by Marshall Ellenstein, of L-W science department.

"The B & L Science Award is especially significant," said J.R. Lashmet, guidance director, in commenting on selection of Kokal. "It makes possible recognition of the outstanding senior student having the highest scholastic standing in science subjects."

As a winner of the honorary science award, young Kokal is eligible to compete for a B & L Science Scholarship at the University of Rochester.

The combined B & L and U. of R. investment in a four-year scholarship is approximately $2,000 a year for four years, allocated on a need basis.

The Science Award -- a handsome bronze medal -- is presented in more than 8,500 participating schools. Surveys have indicated that more than 30 per cent of the winners have been encouraged by the award to follow scientific careers.

The B & L Science Award and scholarship programs have been officially approved by the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

Sandburg Paper Wins All-American Award

For the first time the "Aquila," Carl Sandburg High School's student newspaper, has been awarded an All-American rating by the National Scholastic Press Association (NSPA). The paper was one of nine offset weekly high school papers in the U.S. to earn the NSPA's top ranking.

The All-American honor is for papers published in the second semester of 1967-68 when Jill Gifford, of Tinley Park, was editor-in-chief and page editors were Chris West, Nancy Davidson, Shirley Dwyer, and Kurt Pnizek (all 1968 graduates).

"There is no reason why your paper cannot continue its upward course next year," wrote NSPA judge Wayne Brasler, "even though it will not be a weekly."

"How stories are handled, not frequency of publication, is the most important factor in vitality and timeliness," Brasler wrote. "Try for fresh angles and avoid straight presentation of stale news," he advised.

The "Aquila" received top scores of 200 in coverage of news sources, balance, and creativeness. Editorials, sports writing, and photography also received top scores. Headlines were sometimes confusing in an attempt to be clever, Brasler noted.

Photos, mostly by 1968 senior Art Lee, came in for praise. Brasler said that the AQUILA did "a remarkable job of getting consistently realistic, lively, story-telling photos. This judge has seen this kind of sparkling work in only a handful of other publications."

After an International First Place award won in 1964 from Quill and Scroll judges, the "Aquila" earned second class honor ratings from NSPA for several years. It received an NSPA first class honor rating in 1967 when Debbie Whittle was editor and moved into the All-American category for the first time with last spring's papers.

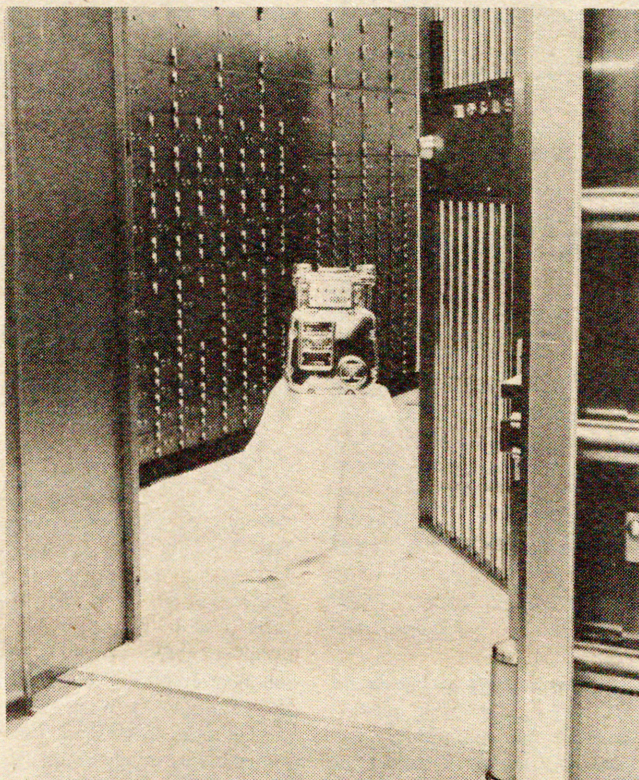

The "Aquila" advisor is Mr. James Matthews.

Jr. Earth Science Club Views Slides

"How to be a Rockhound," a slide program touching on many of the earth sciences, was presented by Russell Kemp, at the meeting of the Mokena Junior Earth Science Club.

People of ESCONI (Earth Science Club of Northern Illinois), the parent organization, were shown on a field trip. The slides showed them collecting fossils in the Coal City (Ill.) strip mine area; dinosaur fossils in Utah; goodies in Illinois, and agates in South Dakota.

Family outings were shown as good opportunities to increase interest in this hobby for all ages. Many ESCONI members became interested thru their children's interest.

Some slides showed it is possible to exhibit more small sample specimens in a shoebox than the Smithsonian Institution would have. Other slides showed fluorescent minerals that show up only under ultraviolet light; polished specimens that appeal to some collectors (others like the natural look), and national park sights.

Mr. Kemp is a chemical salesman and a director of the Lizzadro Museum of Lapidary Art, Elmhurst, and editor of the Museum Quarterly. He was assisted by his wife and their 5-year-old son, Roy. They identified two specimens -- granite with a vein of quartz crystals, and petrified wood.

Student Body At JJC Comes From 14 States

Students enrolling in September at Joliet Junior College graduated from 208 high schools in 14 states and 3 foreign countries.

As one would expect, the three Joliet Township high schools furnished the largest number -- a total of 683, comprised of 214 from Central, 155 from East, and 314 from West.

Next in line was Lockport, with 149 from Central and 85 from West. Joliet Catholic High sent 116, while St. Francis Academy furnished 110.

From Lincoln-Way 95 graduates entered JJC, and Plainfield supplied 70. Morris Community High followed closely with 67, and Providence High with 65. Coal City and Wilmington sent almost identical numbers -- 37 from Coal City and 36 from Wilmington.

JJC was the choice of 24 graduates from Minooka, 18 from Newark, 16 from Reed-Custer, 14 from Gardner-South Wilmington, and 10 from Mazon.

Among high schools not in Illinois Junior College District No. 525, Carl Sandburg at Orland Park sent the largest number, 21 graduates, while Lemont sent 16 and Dwight 14. Five high schools sent seven each -- Blue Mound, Clifton Central, Herscher, Onarga, and Streator. Kankakee followed with six and Bishop McNamara, Mendel Catholic, and Eisenhower with five each, while four each came from Kempton-Cabery, Oak Lawn Community, Octavia (Colfax), Saunemin, Waterman, and Yorkville.

Those sending three each were Alexis, Argo, Crescent-Iroquois, Leland, Lostant, Minonk-Dana-Rutland, Naperville, Paxton, Pearl City, Peotone, Seneca, and Wenona. Only two each were graduates of the following high schools: Altamont Community, Atwood, Beecher, Calumet, Cerro Gordo, Donovan, Forrest-Strawn-Way, Galesburg Senior High, Hamilton (Alabama), Hiawatha, Lanphier, Lincoln Community, Lyons, Maroa-Forsyth, Mt. Assisi Academy, Mt. Carmel, Normal, Pontiac, Roosevelt (New York City), St. Anne, Shabbona, Somonauk, Thornton, Tri-Valley, Washington, Waukegan, and Woodstock.

The remaining 131 high schools sent only one graduate each.

Three students qualified for entrance to Joliet Junior College by passing the GED (General Educational Development) tests.

The foreign countries represented were England, Canada, and Columbia.

Not all of the above students were graduated from high school as recently as last spring. Many graduated in earlier years, but were not enrolled at JJC until the present semester.

Students from outside of Illinois pay the full cost of tuition, while those from within the state but outside Illinois Junior College District No. 525 pay all costs not paid by the state, although in some cases the local high schools from which they come contribute part of their tuition.

Club Seeks Donations Of Clothing

The Health Careers club, at Amos Alonzo Stagg high school, is sponsoring a "Save the Children Clothing Drive" this week. The club hopes that students and parents in district No. 230 and surrounding communities will donate used clothing which will be sent to poor families in Appalachia.

Shoes, work shoes, warm coats, jackets, cotton dresses, jeans, slacks, blouses, shirts, skirts, sweaters, socks, underwear, work clothes, and baby clothes are needed.

The clothing is sent to the Save the Children Federation clothing center in Knoxville, Tenn. and distributed to poverty-stricken families.

The Health Careers club hopes that many students will contribute to the clothing drive.

New Garbage Pick-up Day at N Lenox

The new garbage pick-up schedule went into effect at New Lenox Tuesday.

The week previous there had been some delay in the pick-up and until this Tuesday the last pick-up had been Nov. 9.

Now the contractors expects to maintain his schedule it was said. M & W Disposal Co. has the contract at New Lenox. This is the same firm that ran into difficulties in Joliet. According to news reports at the time, something always seemed to be going wrong with the equipment or else there was a shortage of help.

The contractor was served notice by the New Lenox village board that if he failed to make the pick-ups, as scheduled, his contract would be cancelled.

New Tests to Detect Pre-Diabetics

Copyright 1968 World Book Science Service

The astounding increase in the incidence of diabetes mellitus in the U.S. population (from 1 in 10 in 1930 to 1 in 5 today) has spurred many specialists to find more specific ways to detect the "pre-diabetic" in order to forestall the onset of the disease.

In diabetes, the body's insulin fails to properly break down the carbohydrates we eat, leading to excess sugar in the blood and urine. Unless controlled, it is usually fatal.

Doctors have long recognized certain indicators that point to the potential diabetic: the bearing of extremely large babies, obesity, onset of retinal hemorrhages, kidney failure, and/or a history of diabetes in the family.

In fact, those with two diabetic parents are almost certain to become diabetics themselves.

Dr. Henry T. Ricketts, professor emeritus of medicine at the University of Chicago, has spent four years testing known pre-diabetics for scientific indicators because their glucose tolerance tests are well within normal limits, and so far the glucose tolerance test has been the only scientific verification of diabetics available.

Now that insulin levels in the blood may also be determined, as well as tolerance to cortisone, Dr. Ricketts hopes to arrive at a formula using the results of all three tests to pinpoint the pre-diabetic.

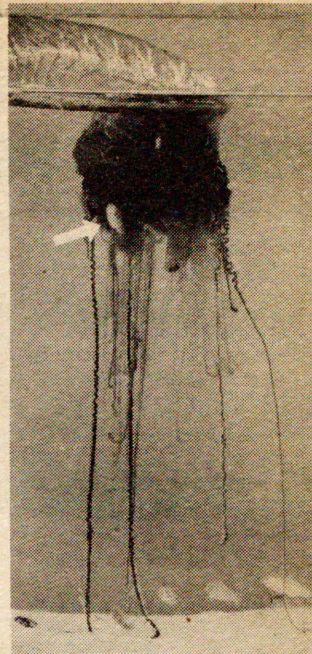

He has already demonstrated differences in insulin response to glucose intake. Oddly enough, the pre-diabetic puts out an excessive amount of insulin immediately upon ingesting glucose.

But by the end of the five-hour test, the total is less than normal and it is the total amount that counts.

rates on extremely high animal fat diets. He believes it is due to hereditary factors.

CONTROLLING KIDS -- Dr. Daniel M. Martin of San Leandro, Calif., is using methylphenidate hydrochloride (Ritalin) to control "mean little kids." This drug, used only in geriatric treatment in the past, is said to make incorrigible youngsters calm, "affectionate and a delight to live with."

EYE ON SCIENCE

By JOE COSTA

Copyright 1968 World Book Science Service

How would you like to be living among a cluster of high-tension wires for safety? Well, improbable as it may seem, that is how some little fish live, literally.

The Portuguese Man-of-War is a jellyfish that floats on the surface of tropical seas and the Gulf Stream. It develops long tentacles (sometimes up to 100 feet long) that act as arms and are used to grasp food.

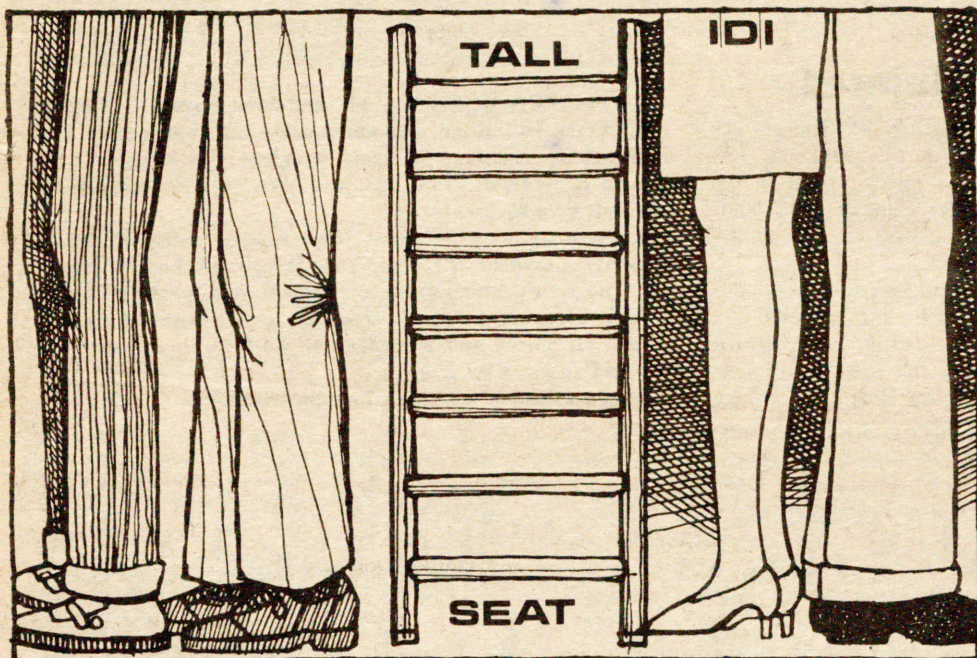

They contain a poison that seems to paralyze fish on contact. The tentacles are also dangerous to man. Swimmers touching them will suffer painful welts, or even shock and prostration that could be fatal.

Yet, a little fish called the "Atlantic Man-O-War," which is not immune to the sting of the tentacles, lives warily among them to protect itself from other enemies.

In the photo, the arrow points to one such fish close in among the tentacles, while a number of others can be seen swimming around alongside and near the bottom.

The Junior Scientist

Helps Person Look Taller

How tall is your favorite movie star? Your favorite teacher? Other important people in the world?

A scientist at the Australian National University has reported some very interesting findings about how people think about other people's height.

It seems there is a direct relationship between how important we think somebody is and how tall we think they are.

The experiment was quite simple. The same man was introduced to five groups of college students. To the first group, he was presented as "Mr. England, a student from Cambridge."

Before each group, the man's position was presented as a little high until the fifth group, where he was introduced as "Professor England from Cambridge."

Each group of students was asked to guess the man's height.

What do you think happened? As the man's title became more impressive, the students thought he was taller! The differences in their estimates were not tremendous, but there were definite differences.

The fifth group, on the average, thought the "professor" was over 6 feet tall; the first group thought the "student" was barely 5 feet 10.

Perhaps there's a good trick for you to consider in all this. If you want to increase your height, don't buy elevator shoes... just make people think you're important.

Here's another way to get up in the world: Climb the word ladder. Start with SEAT and change one letter at each rung to form a new word until you get to TALL. Don't leave any blanks.

ANSWERS: Here's one way you could have climbed the word ladder-SEAT, seal, real, reel, feel, fell, fall, TALL.

nal, Singleton, Bartoletta, Ed Leoni, Jim Jelenek, Harold McGhee, Dan Snodgrass, Bill Ricci, Wayne Coners, and Jerry Lucas.

Devine complimented the twelve seniors who had stayed out for football for four years and won 31 games, tying one over the span. "They have tremendous attitudes," the coach said. "Never did they feel they could be beaten. They had confidence in themselves. They all have talent but have worked for everything they have gotten."

The sophomore football team, coached by Cliff Eade, tied for the conference championship with Bremen, each garnering 6-1 records. Eade thanked the team and assistant coach Gene Kowert for outstanding seasons. The "toughest guy" award went

Delinquent Tax List In This Issue

The delinquent tax lists for Frankfort and New Lenox townships appear in this issue.

It is possible, it was pointed out by Clarence Lipman (R) county treasurer of Will County, that the names of some property owners who paid their taxes in the past week appear on the delinquent list.

That is because they appeared at the treasurer's office after the delinquent lists were turned over to the newspapers for printing.

Seventy-two freshmen received numerals for their first year of Sandburg football. Coaching the freshmen were Dick Conrad, assisted by Michael Johnson and Roy Aulwurm. The freshmen's won-lost marks were 4-2-1 for the "A" team and 2-5 for the "B" team.

Another champion Eagle squad was introduced at the banquet. The sophomore cross country team finished first in the SWSC and compiled a season record of 15-1. Varsity cross country runners were fourth in the conference and had an overall record of 11-4. Cross country coach is John Wilson.

Injured

Frederick W. Raiser, 46, of 187th St., Mokena, suffered a minor wound in the shoulder Sunday in a hunting accident on the family property.

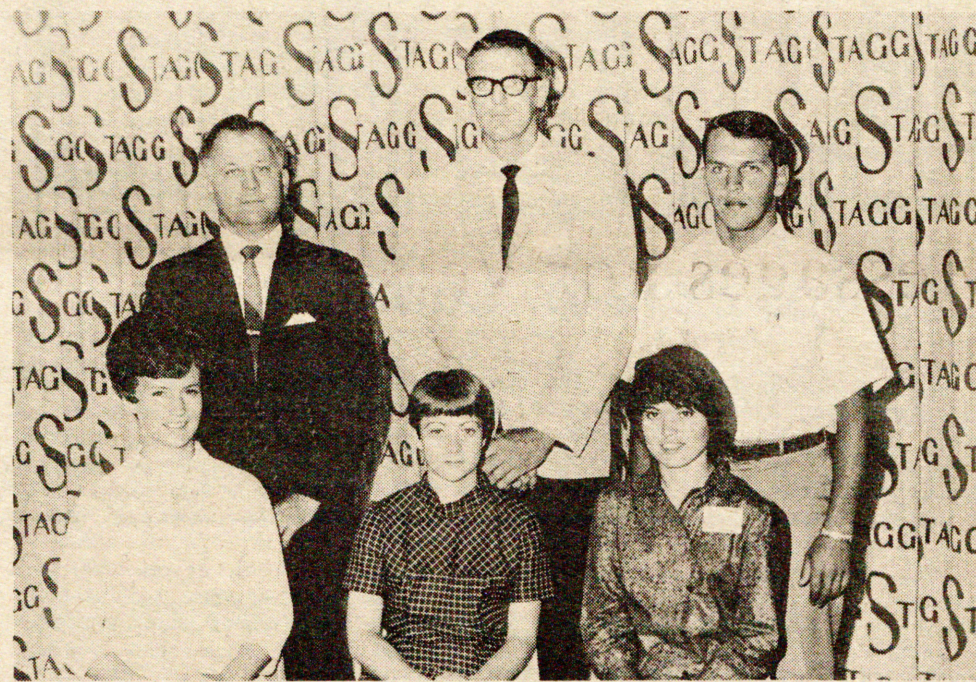

A shotgun was accidentally fired by a 14-year-old boy and some of the pellets struck Raiser. He was treated at St. James Hospital, Chicago Heights.

A Chance To Get A Turkey Free

Residents of the area have 15 opportunities to get a free turkey for their Thanksgiving tables.

ing tables.

It is really a give-away. No one has to buy anything. All one has to do is write his or her name on one of the coupons appearing on the turkey page in this issue and deposit it in a container in the merchant's place of business. In fact there isn't any rule against depositing a coupon at each and every store involved.

Merchants with turkeys to give away are:

New Lenox: Braun Sales; Abe Frank's Liquors; Lincoln-Way Savings and Loan; First Lady Beauty Salon; Lincoln-Way Pharmacy; New Lenox Standard Service, and New Lenox Lumber Co.

Mokena: Mokena Sales; Curling Iron Salon; Mokena Pharmacy; Mokena Standard Service, and Welsch Lumber Co.

Orland Park: Norman Cleaners and Orland State Bank.

Frankfort: Frankfort State Bank.

FRONT STREET residents in Mokena along that portion that is being improved could be happier if the work were further along. The finishing coat of blacktop is still lacking and the scooped out places where the sidewalks are to go are muddy or dusty -- depending on the precipitation. The weather was still warm enough last week, it was pointed out, for the blacktop and the sidewalks to have been laid. Whether the job can be finished now is a question that is bothering village officials as well as residents along the street. The fire department is concerned too. It wants to come home. Messages For Vets Can Be Made Now

Red Cross will make appointments for Voices from Home recorded Christmas messages on Saturday, Nov. 23, for servicemen's families who can't come during the week, according to Mrs. John Macdonald, chairman of the program for Will County Regional Red Cross.

The service opened Nov. 11 and will continue until Dec. 16 in order to insure delivery of recorded holiday greetings to distant military posts by Christmas time.

It is necessary to call the Red Cross office in Joliet, 815-723-3494 and set a definite hour for the appointments, Mrs. Macdonald said. A Red Cross volunteer will be on hand to help operate the recording device. The office is at 222 N. Broadway, Joliet.

A maximum of 15 minutes time is available for each holiday message. The whole family can take part. Some people like to sing or play instruments as part of the Christmas greeting.

Voices from Home recordings also are available to families of exchange students and Peace Corps members and to foreign students in this country.

Mission Worker Returns To Peru

Miss Kathleen Pfeiffer, of Palos Heights, has returned to the Wycliffe Bible Translators base at Yarinacocha, Peru. She will go out to an Indian tribe to free a linguist for translation and teaching. She will do the cooking, radio contact, and make friends with the tribesmen.

Miss Pfeiffer, who is a member of Palos Baptist Christ, taught elementary school for missionary children for two years in Peru. She also worked with Peruvian young people and spent some time in a tribe.

She attended Dwight D. Eisenhower High School in Blue Island, and graduated from Wheaton College in 1966 with her BA in Christian Education.

She received her assignment thru Christian Service Corps International. CSC recruits and trains dedicated Christians between the ages of 18 and 70 to give two years of their lives in full-time Christian service with mission boards here and abroad.

When Miss Pfeiffer went to Peru in November, 1966, she was the second "Christian Corpsman" sent by the Christian Service Corps, which had its beginning in 1965. Twenty-seven Christian Corpsmen are now serving in 16 countries. Miss Pfeiffer plans to stay in Peru for another year.

"Who's in control?"

Most of us like to feel that we're "in the driver's seat." But what happens when, for one reason or another, we lose control of our experience?

In this public lecture, Charles W. Ferris, an experienced Christian Science practitioner, shows how we can take control of our experience by submitting to the perfect control of God.

In three actual and vivid experiences he tells how health was restored, a business career saved, and human relationships corrected, all when the individuals involved were willing to submit to the perfect will of God.

Admission is free. Everyone is welcome.

International Stock Show To Open Nov. 29

The International Live Stock Exposition will celebrate its 69th anniversary here as the country's largest farm animal exhibition Nov. 29 to Dec. 7.

An entry of 8000 purebred cattle, horses, sheep, and hogs is anticipated by the management by the time a final tally is made of all entries following the November 1 closing date. They will fill to capacity the 13 acres of exhibit area in the International Amphitheatre, in addition to a large section of the nearby Chicago Stock Yards.

It is the closing and climax event of the agricultural show year in North America. There will be 37 different breeds on view - a multi-million dollar display of the continent's most valuable farm animals entered by stockmen and dairymen from over 40 states and Canada.

Among them will be several hundred boys and girls, members of 4-H and Future Farmer of America Clubs, exhibiting cattle, sheep, swine of their own raising that have won top prizes at preceding shows and Fairs in their home states.

The Exposition also includes one of the country's top Horse Shows, featuring fast-paced roadsters, state-harness horses and gaited saddle horses, plus the crowd pleasing hunter and jumper competitions.

With each of the International Horse Shows will be Championship Rodeo. The show management reports many well-known cowboy contestants have registered for competition in this rough-est of all sports.

They will compete in Chicago to gain championship points in bull-dogging wild steers, Calf-roping, saddle and bare-back riding, and the always dangerous and spectacular Brahma bull riding contests.

Appearing this year for the first time at all performances of the International Horse Show and Rodeo will be "The Westernaires", consisting of 30 youngsters from Golden, Colorado, presenting a fast, spectacular, precision ride with flags and colorful costumes that exists from the arena at top speed through fire.

Phone Installations, Changes To Cost More

Illinois Bell Telephone Company, Friday asked the Illinois Commerce Commission for approval to revise one-time charges for installing and changing telephone service.

The increases, filed to become effective Dec. 16, would not change any monthly rates or charges for any basic telephone services or telephone calls. Free repair and maintenance service will continue. Illinois Bell said the new rates would cover only customers who have new service established, move to another address, or desire changes or additions in service at their present address.

In addition, the proposal seeks some increases in installation charges for PBX (private switchboards) and key telephone system services.

The increases in these one-time charges range from $2 to $8, and would average about $2.25, with most customers paying $2 more. Company revenues would be increased an estimated $3 million annually -- less than one-half of one per cent of the company's revenues for Illinois intrastate business.

"We feel that the customers who require service installed or changed should bear the expense insofar as it is practical thru service connection, move and change charges," a telephone company spokesman said. "The general body of customers should not bear the burden of costs caused by others." He said that normally about 25 to 30 per cent of the costs associated with telephone "movement" are covered by service connection, move and change charges. Currently, only about 18 per cent are covered by these charges.

"We have taken this step reluctantly but were forced to do so because of rapidly-rising costs of installing and changing telephone equipment -- up 35 per cent in the five years since the last increase," the spokesman added. "We are trying to keep these one-time charges in better balance with the cost of doing the work and to ease the burden on existing monthly basic telephone rates."

Illinois Bell estimated that it has reduced rates of telephone service for Illinois customers more than $42 million since 1961.

The charges for installing telephone service for residence customers would be raised from $6 to $8, regardless of the number of phones involved. The $8 charge is also applicable to: (1) changing location of the one or more telephones in the residence, (2) changing type of color of one or more telephones, if the work is done on one order.

The service connection charge for establishing a main business telephone or trunk line would go from $12 to $15. For connecting a business extension phone or private switchboard (PBX) telephone, the charge would move from $6 to $8. Where a business customer retains all telephone equipment left in place by a previous subscriber -- involving relatively few cases -- the charge would also be $15. Changing the style or color of business telephones, the charge will be $8 for the first telephone and $5.50 for each additional telephone (from $6 and $4.50 charges).

The company also announced today that it filed a request for similar increases with the Public Service Commission of Indiana, which would produce an estimated $300,000 in revenues a year. Illinois Bell serves Lake and Porter Counties in Indiana.

Can you heat a castle for $200 a year with electricity?

If it's the six-room kind you can.

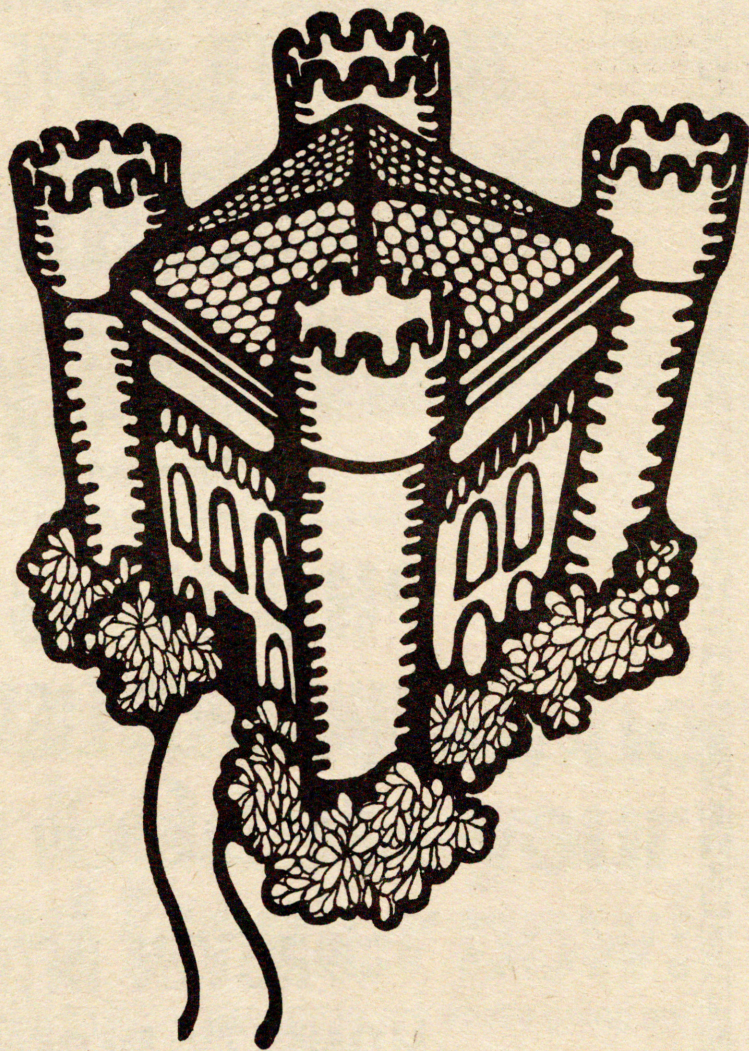

According to the old saying, that's exactly what a man's home is—his castle. And if your castle happens to be the kind most people buy, namely, the six-room size, there are some things you ought to know about electric heat.

First of all, you should know that Commonwealth Edison has dramatically reduced electric heat rates over the past ten years. What's that mean? Simply that you should expect to pay less than $200 a year to heat an average six-room house with proper insulation.

Then, you should know there's a definite trend to electric heat. Example: Over 25,000 families in Northern Illinois are heating electrically, and more than 5,000 new families are joining them every year. That many people feel the price is small compared to the many benefits of modern electric heat.

No matter what size castle you have.

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS

Dear friends,

Walter Lippman says: "Where all think alike, no one thinks very much."

If everybody thought alike on the matter of funeral services, all funeral programs would be the same. Most people, however, have their own opinions and preference.

Each service we plan is arranged according to the family's own desires. The details are decided by the family. We simply see that those details are properly carried out.

Take Notice: In addition to the foregoing amount, the cost of each tract of parcel of land is 49 cents, and on each city or town lot or block 39 cents at this date. A statutory fee of three cents per tract or lot for compiling the delinquent list for the County Court, plus a statutory fee of three cents per tract or lot for compiling delinquent list for the printer is added. At the time of the sale, an additional statutory fee of ten cents for each tract and three cents for each lot sold for taxes is added.

All delinquent taxes for the year 1967 draw interest at the rate of one percent per month of fractional part thereof for delinquency, the first installment being delinquent on the first day of August 1968 and the second installment being delinquent on the first day of October 1968.

I, Clarence Lipman, County Treasurer and ex-officio County Collector of Will County in the State of Illinois, give notice that I will apply to the Circuit Court of said County at the December term thereof, to be held at the Court House in the City of Joliet in said County of Will on the second Monday in December A.D. 1968 the same being the 9th day of said month the judgement against the said lands, town and city lots and blocks described in the foregoing lists for the general and special taxes, interest and costs severally due thereon, and the judgement fixing the amount of tax paid under protest, and that I will then and there apply for an order to sell all lands, town and city lots and blocks for the satisfaction of said general and special taxes, interest and costs, and I also give notice that on the Monday following being the third Monday of December A.D. 1968 the same being the sixteenth day of said month, all lands, town and city lots and blocks, on which an order shall be made will be exposed to public sale at the Court House aforesaid in said County and State for the amount of general and special taxes, interest and costs due thereon. Said tax sale will commence at the hour of ten o'clock a.m. on said Monday the sixteenth day of December A.D. 1968 and will continue from day to day until all lands, town and city lots and blocks upon which the general and special taxes, interest and costs remain due and unpaid at that time are sold.

Green Garden

Methodists Observe Anniversary With Banquet

Mrs. Katharine Heisner
Telephone 469-5187

Members of the Green Garden Methodist Church celebrated its 83rd anniversary last Thursday night with a banquet in Redwood Inn, Kankakee.

Last month seven new stained glass windows were installed and the plans for redecorating the church have gone forward.

Talk of locating Chicago's third airport in Green Garden has failed to deter the congregation in its plans for the future. The Green Garden church has had a variety of experiences, lived thru all of them and with all the talk going around that most of the acres in the township will be used for an airport no one has reached for the panic button.

"We decided we must do one of three things," said the pastor, the Rev. Thomas M. Hardwick, "ride it out, give up or continue with a greater positive attitude than ever before. We chose to accept the latter."

The Green Garden airport is like Mark Twain on the weather -- "a lot of people talk about it but no one does anything about it." And as long as Chicago's Mayor Daley is talking about Lake Michigan as an airport site many people don't give any other locations a chance.

One time, that was back in May, 1917, a tornado swept thru the area and, shifting the church off it's foundations and causing it other damage.

That turned out to be a good thing because the congregation took advantage of the opportunity to dig a basement to house kitchen facilities and in repairing the damage they also enlarged the church building.

The Green Garden Methodist Church was organized in 1884 by the Rev. F.F.R. Klenzky as a member of the Chicago German Conference and service were conducted in the German language until 1927. The first church building was dedicated on Nov. 1, 1885, and a part of the original structure is to be found in the present building.

The same year German Speech was dropped from the worship service the Green Garden and Frankfort Methodist churches united under the Rev. Samuel Weisshaar and this arrangement continued until 1955 when each went its own way. In that year the Green Garden Church bought three more acres and built a new parsonage. The Rev. John B. Vautrin was its first occupant.

Three of the Green Garden congregation entered the Methodist ministry. The first was Dr. Henry M. Battenhouse. He was the first baby baptized in the church, the ceremony taking place the day of the dedication, Nov. 1, 1885. He was ordained in 1911.

Dr. Adam J. Loeppert was ordained in 1902 and the Rev. Henry Loeppert in 1890.

Catholic Bishops In State Ask Aid For Their Schools

In a letter addressed to the more than 4,000 priests of Illinois, the Roman Catholic Bishops in the state announced their concern for the rising costs of Catholic education and their desire to support legislation to help meet certain of these expenses. A half - million pupils now educated in the non - public school system of Illinois. This educational effort leads to a substantial savings for the ordinary taxpayer. The program the bishops present has as its goal the strengthening of the over - all educational effort of the state.

"The State of Illinois, hard pressed to finance its public Schools, needs the state's Catholic school systems which now enroll about twenty percent of all elementary and secondary school - age children in the state," the bishops noted. Yet at the same time, they indicated, they were faced with a decreased number of priests and religious to staff the many schools, as well as with the escalating cost of living and of today's educational developments. Since tuition and free-will contributions do not meet these expenses, the bishops state that they will give full support to this program which was recommended to them by the diocesan school superintendents and various lay groups.

The program has four objectives:

1. Better transportation arrangements for non - public school pupils.
2. Loan of secular textbooks to non - public school pupils.
3. Certain auxiliary services for non - public school children in districts where these are provided for public-school pupils.
4. Provision for a state agency to purchase the secular components of non - public elementary and secondary school program, e.g.: mathematics, physical education.

In other neighboring states, such benefits are already part of the state school program.

The letter, written in the name of the Illinois Catholic Conference, was signed by John Cardinal Cody, Archbishop of Chicago and Metropolitan of the State of Illinois, along with the five bishop of the other dioceses which make up the Province of Illinois" the Most Rev. Albert R. Zuroweste, Bishop of Belleville; Most Rev. William A. O'Connor, Bishop of Springfield; Most Rev. John B. Franz, Bishop of Peoria; Most Rev. Romeo Blanchette, Bishop of Joliet, and Most Rev. Arthur J. O'Neill, Bishop of Rockford.

The Illinois Catholic Conference is a joint committee composed of the Bishops and the officials of various agencies which represent the six diocese of the church in Illinois. The School Offices of each of the dioceses will be responsible for the distribution of the information necessary to help inform the general public and various lay organizations of any further developments in the program.

Pheasant Hunter Shot By Companion, Dies

A hunter was accidentally shot and killed in a cattail swamp near Romeoville Sunday while hunting pheasants. Because the marshy condition of the area made footing extremely treacherous, especially if attempting to carry weight, Deputy Coroner William Goodale, of Lockport, brought the body out by helicopter.

One thinks of pheasants in conjunction with cornfields and grassy fields but it is reported there were quite a number of them in the marshy area near Romeoville where the cattails grow six and seven feet tall, and that was where Myron D. Gabbert, 54, of 820 High St., Willow Springs, the victim, was hunting with his son-in-law, William R. Blechmidt, of 9106 S. 89th Av., Hickory Hills, and Harold P. Prey, of 14 Bristol St., Romeoville.

According to information given Deputy Coroner Goodale, Gabbert had dropped back a bit from his companions and apparently they were unaware of it. A bird was flushed and as it flew toward their rear, Prey is said to have turned and fired. The shot struck Gabbert, killing him.

The incident took place about 9:30 in the morning but it was 2 o'clock before Goodale had the body out. He employed a helicopter pilot from Mainline Aviation, Joliet, to take him in. The cattails supported the helicopter, with some help from the engine, while Goodale and an assistant bundled the body and got it aboard.

The incident occurred about a mile east of Illinois 53 and about a mile north of 135th St. It was the first fatal hunting accident reported in Will County this year.

Will County CROP board chairman, said today. The returns will be received during campaign week, Nov. 24
- 30. Donations may be sent amounts and non-staple crops are converted to cash.
